If elected today to be an officer of FBLA, I would increase exposure of our organization, thus boosting enrolment and growing an even larger base of members. Coming into my Freshman year, I was searching for clubs to join and FBLA seemed fun except that to me what the group did was shrouded in mystery. I was unsure of what being a member of FBLA entailed, and I was not sure of what the club did. I wish that I had understood and joined the club my freshman year as this year I have greatly enjoyed it. I seek to make sure that this does not happen to anyone else by spreading the message of what FBLA does and encouraging others to join it. My vision for this organization is to continue the excellent fundraisers and events we currently have, such as the dodgeball tournament. I wish to either make this semi-annual or to have other tournaments such as spikeball. I want to accomplish these goals because I have grown as an individual since I started FBLA, and I want others to experience this too. My vision for this organization is to boost enrolment, create more fundraising opportunities and to create an even more enjoyable Oxford FBLA chapter.
