FBLA Officer Nomination Short Answer

If elected as Oxford FBLA's Vice-President, I would work to expand the number of members in the club -beginning by advertising the club at orientation day- and the involvement of the Oxford FBLA in the larger organization of FBLA. I see our chapter of FBLA as rising in numbers and recognition at the SLC, and hope to continue the momentum so that our club has the ability to contribute to the state charity project. I envision the Oxford Chapter to continue to grow as it provides many students with a base-platform to create professional careers upon. With this growth and increased opportunities for our club to take, I see the club giving back to the community, through fundraising for the state charity project. This coming year will be my fourth of FBLA and as I am a two-time SLC qualifier, I believe myself well established within Oxford FBLA. I hope as Vice President to further my involvement in the organization and to share my positive experience with many more students.
