

Types and Requirements of Graduation Projects

Name:	Service Project	Career Experience	Research Paper	Cultural Experience	Demonstration	Eagle Scout/Gold Star	Upward Bound
Description	Volunteering with a group or organization	Shadowing or working without pay in a career choice that you are considering	Conducting original research on an academic or scientific topic that is approved by sponsor/graduation project coordinator first	Traveling to a location to experience a culture distinct and different from your own	Completing a task or project that requires you to learn new skills	Completing the project as required by BSA, GSA	Participation in the Upward Bound program
Hourly requirement to be logged	Minimum of 30 hours	Minimum of 30 hours	No hourly requirement	Minimum of 30 hours	Minimum of 30 hours	Your completed project will meet all OASD requirements	Completion in the Upward Bound program will meet the hourly requirements
Paper requirement	3 page reflection/summary. Describe the work done and reflect on the experience	3 page reflection/summary. Describe the work done and reflect on the experience	10 page paper in MLA style with in-text citation and Works Cited page. Please see "Research Paper Guide" on website	3 page reflection/summary. Describe the work done and reflect on the experience	3 page reflection/summary. Describe the work done and reflect on the experience	Your completed project will meet all OASD requirements	3 page reflection/summary. Describe the work done and reflect on the experience
Presentation	Approx. 10 minute presentation. See "Graduation Project Rubric"	Approx. 10 minute presentation. See "Graduation Project Rubric"	Approx. 10 minute presentation. See "Research Paper and Presentation Rubric"	Approx. 10 minute presentation. See "Graduation Project Rubric"	Approx. 10 minute presentation. See "Graduation Project Rubric"	Your completed project will meet all OASD requirements	Approx. 10 minute presentation. See "Graduation Project Rubric"

Please note the following: 1. You cannot be paid for any part of your graduation project; 2. Your project cannot be done for course credit; 3. Your project cannot include any court-ordered community service; 4. Your sponsor may not be an immediate family member without approval from Graduation Project Coordinator