THEME: DIVERSITY AND TOLERANCE

BOOK TITLE	AUTHOR	SUMMARY	LEVEL
A Day's Work 	Bunting, Eve	Fiction When Francisco, a young Mexican American boy, tries to help his grandfather find work, he discovers that even though the old man cannot speak English, he has something even more valuable to teach Francisco.	350L
Stellaluna 	Cannon, Janell	Fiction This award-winning picture book, a clever, original variation on the theme of the ugly duckling, follows the adventures of a lost baby fruit bat and her efforts to fit in.	550L
The Can Man 	Williams, Laura E.	Fiction Tim's birthday is just a week away, and more than anything he wants a skateboard. But money is tight, and Tim knows his family cannot afford to buy him a board. As Tim ponders how he might earn money for a skateboard, he hears the Can Man down the street collecting empty soft drink cans.	AD630
All the Colors of the Earth 	Hamanaka, Sheila	Non-Fiction Inspired by her own two children's multi-ethnic heritage, Ms. Hamanaka uses soaring text and beautiful art to celebrate the glorious diversity of children laughing, loving and glowing with life.	AD540L
Thank you, Mr. Falker 	Polacco, Patricia	Non-fiction The autobiographical story of Little Trisha, whose struggle with dyslexia is transformed by a wonderful teacher. "A personal story with engaging results."—SLJ	AD650L

One and Only Ivan 	Applegate, Katherine	Fiction The true story of Ivan the gorilla, who lived in a shopping mall for 27 years— told from Ivan's uncanny point of view. "Important."—Horn Book	570L
Because of Winn Dixie 	DiCamillo, Kate	Fiction Opal spends her first summer in a new town with a sweet, stray dog and a lot of difficult memories. "Funny, poignant, and utterly genuine."— Publishers Weekly	610L
Who was Jackie Robinson? 	Herman, Gail	Non-fiction This book is an inspiring sports biography of Jackie Robinson, who was not only a natural at football, basketball, and baseball, but was also the first black player to break the color barrier in major league baseball.	670L
Who was Harriet Tubman? 	Zeldis McDonough, Yona	Non-fiction Born a slave in Maryland, Harriet Tubman knew first-hand what it meant to be someone's property; she was whipped by owners and almost killed by an overseer. It was from other field hands that she first heard about the Underground Railroad, which she traveled by herself north to Philadelphia.	650L
Wonder 	Palacio, R.J.	Fiction August Pullman is not an ordinary ten-year-old kid. Sure, he's a huge Star Wars fan, he loves his dog, and he's got a pretty good sense of humor. But August was born with a craniofacial abnormality, a genetic defect that caused his facial features to be severely deformed. His life has never been "normal."	790L
Rules 	Lord, Cynthia	Fiction This 2007 Newbery Honor Book is a humorous and heartwarming debut about feeling different and finding acceptance.	780L

Esperanza Rising 	Munoz Ryan, Pam	Fiction Esperanza thought she'd always live with her family on their ranch in Mexico — she'd always have fancy dresses, a beautiful home, and servants. But a sudden tragedy forces Esperanza and Mama to flee to California during the Great Depression, and to settle in a camp for Mexican farm workers.	750L
If You Traveled the Underground Railroad 	Levine, Ellen	Non-fiction The vast and complex network known as the Underground Railroad helped thousands of slaves reach freedom. Told in a vivid question-and-answer format, the text provides true-life stories of slaves who faced an enormous number of dangers.	720L
If Your Name Was Changed at Ellis Island 	Levine, Ellen	Non-fiction Packed with quotes from and photos of the children and adults who passed through Ellis Island. "One of the best general historical accounts for younger readers."—Booklist	720L

Project due to classroom teacher by September 30, 2021.

Fourth Grade Summer Reading

You will be choosing one fiction book and one nonfiction book from the list of books for your grade level. You will then choose one fiction story project to create out of the three choices given for one of the fiction books. For your nonfiction book you will write a summary of the book you have chosen for your nonfiction book.

Choose One Fiction Project to Complete

Choice One: Advertisement Poster	Choice Two: Book Jacket	Choice Three: Artifact
Creating an Advertisement is a way of telling a story. After you read your book, you will create an advertisement on poster board. Make sure you include a picture, description of the book including setting, characters, and plot, paragraph on the reasons for advertising the book for someone else to read.	Creating a book jacket is a way of telling a story. After you read your book, you will illustrate the front cover of your book. Then you will write a brief summary on the back cover of the book. The summary should include a description of the book including setting, characters, and plot.	You will be bringing in an artifact that is related to a scene or a part of book. You will write a paragraph describing how the artifact relates to the story.

Nonfiction Project to Complete

For the nonfiction project, you will need to write a summary of the nonfiction book you have chosen to read off of the booklist. Your summary must be 2-3 paragraphs long. Your summary needs to include the key ideas and supporting details for each section of your non-fiction book. We have included a graphic organizer to help you organize your thoughts prior to writing. You may need multiple copies of the graphic organizer, which can be found on the next page. Please be sure to pay careful attention to your spelling and punctuation!

Summer Reading Poster Advertisement

Creating a poster advertisement is a way to advertise the literary elements of a story, such as the characters, setting and plot. After you read your book, you will create a poster advertisement. Your advertisement will combine a picture and a description of the book. The description needs to include a setting, characters, and a paragraph detailing the reasons for advertising the book for others to read.
