TOPICS	DECISIONS/ACTIONS	RESPONSIBILITY	TIMELINE
Flexible Instructional Days	Mr. Woods reviewed the Flexible Instruction Days (FIDS) which are up for approval at the regular meeting.	Mr. Woods	June 21, 2022
Cafeteria Fund Pricing	Mr. Cooney reviewed the proposed 2022-2023 cafeteria prices. Kindergarten through 8th grade students breakfasts and lunches will continue to be free. Grades 9 through 12 will be charged $1.75 for breakfast and $2.70 for lunch. Milk will be .75. Mrs. Weir did a comparison of school lunches with local fast food restaurants. School lunches must meet a standard of meat, grain, fruit or vegetables and milk. OASD breakfast and lunches provide these standards for free or substantially less than the restaurants.	Mr. Cooney	June 21, 2022
Health and Safety Plan Review	Mr. Woods reviewed the Health and Safety Plan.	Mr. Woods	June 21, 2022

Recognition of Visitors	Ronnie Lutz - East Nottingham Township, feels that the government is going to resurrect the pandemic in September. ESSER III funds and SEL materials. Dee Wiker - East Nottingham-Why didn't she receive any free PCR tests? SEL in curriculum. 4MYVIEW Literacy aligns to ESSER funded allowable activities. Carol Colangelo -East Nottingham Township, objected to the viewing of The Crucible in Mrs. Lauer's English class. Feels the pandemic is government funded. Tuskegee project, weaponized mosquitos. Judy Mortorano - East Nottingham-Feels that SEL is used to groom kids, mind control. Referenced an article from EpochTimes. Veronica Pidge - East Nottingham-prayed for the board, feels board needs to make righteous decisions based on traditional values. Tenille DeWeese -Upper Oxford- is infuriated with Mr. Blessington's comment that" since the softball team has performed so well they deserve an upgrade to the field" and referring to Mrs. Harrison as "babe". Shelly Meadowcroft -East Nottingham Township, Mrs. Kehs comments towards educators at the last meeting. Comments that were out of context.	Mr. Tighe
Adjournment	On motion by Mr. Tenga, seconded by Mrs. Harrison, the meeting was adjourned by a unanimous vote at 8:43 P.M.
