* # One Crazy Summer by Rita Williams-Garcia (fiction)

In the summer of 1968, after traveling from Brooklyn to Oakland, California, to spend a month with the mother they barely know, eleven-year-old Delphine and her two younger sisters arrive to a cold welcome as they discover that their mother, a dedicated poet and printer, is resentful of the intrusion of their visit and wants them to attend a nearby Black Panther summer camp. 750 L

* # The Crossover by Kwame Alexander (fiction)

"With a bolt of lightning on my kicks . . . The court is SIZZLING. My sweat is DRIZZLING. Stop all that quivering. Cuz tonight I'm delivering," announces dread-locked, 12-year old Josh Bell. He and his twin brother Jordan are awesome on the court. But Josh has more than basketball in his blood, he's got mad beats, too, that tell his family's story in verse, in this fast and furious novel of family and brotherhood. 750 L

* # I Will Always Write Back: How One Letter Changed Two Lives by Caitlin Alifirenka – (nonfiction)

The true story of an all-American girl and a boy from Zimbabwe and the letter that changed both of their lives forever. It started as an assignment. Everyone in Caitlin's class wrote to an unknown student somewhere in a distant place. Martin was lucky to even receive a pen-pal letter. There were only ten letters, and fifty kids in his class. But he was the top student, so he got the first one. That letter was the beginning of a correspondence that spanned six years and changed two lives. 790 L

* Tex- S.E. Hinton- (fiction)

Even though his classmates from first grade on have considered him strange and a loser, Daniel Zinkoff's optimism and exuberance and the support of his loving family do not allow him to feel that way about himself. 710 L. *may contain sensitive content

Entering 8th Grade Assignment:

Prompts/Questions

A three to five sentence response is required for each question.

Remembering

CHOOSE
ONE

1. What is the main setting of the novel? List the places mentioned in the book.
2. Who is the protagonist? Who or what is the main antagonist?
3. What problems does one of the characters have, and how does he or she solve it?

Understanding

CHOOSE
ONE

4. Give an example of indirect characterization: personality traits shown through actions and dialogue. (For example: Jimmy walked down the street frowning. Reader infers Jimmy is upset.)
5. Tell in your own words how the setting of the story affected a character.
6. Describe the mood of a specific scene from the novel using at least two relevant details.

Applying

CHOOSE
ONE

7. Did this book give you any new ideas about yourself? Why or why not?
8. Write a letter to a friend recommending this book.
9. Identify a situation in which the protagonist showed courage. Describe how you would have reacted in the same situation.
10. Tell 5 ways in which you are like the main character.

Analyzing

CHOOSE

11. Compare and contrast two of the characters in this book.
12. Compare the novel you read this summer to a novel you read last year.
13. The summer book choices are realistic novels. Which event in the novel you read seems most unbelievable?
14. Find an Internet article from a primary source connected to a social issue from the novel (i.e. bullying, abuse, mental illness, etc.). Record your source (title of article, title of publication, the Web site, author, and date of publication). Write a minimum 10-sentence summary of the article. (Wikipedia, Google, etc., are not primary sources)
